

2017 Fall Programs

The Universe is Out There!

September 22nd, 2017

7:30 – 9:30pm

Members: Free

Nonmembers: $5

Max: 30 participants

Please join BRC and the Chester County Astronomical Society for a night gazing at our universe.

Fall Craft Night

September 27th, 2017

6:00 – 8:30pm

Members: $3

Nonmembers: $5

Max: 15 participants

Ages: 6-12

Join us in making some fun Fall crafts! Participants will also have the opportunity to submit their crafts to the Unionville Community fair.

Fall Migration at the Myrick Center

October 1st, 2017

8:00 – 10:00am

Members: $10

Nonmembers: $15

Max: 25 participants

Explore the varied habitats of the Myrick Conservation Center as we search for migrating. A Presentation will be given by Derek Stoner, naturalist and well-known photographer.

Pre-registration required for all programs

Register at:

brandywineredclay.org or call (610) 793-1090

Owl Prowl

October 23rd, 2017

7:00 – 8:30pm

Members: $3

Nonmembers: $5

Max: 15 participants

Ages: 8-12

Whooo's ready for some fun! Learn about local owl species that inhabit the Myrick Conservation Center and the surrounding area.

Tree Planting

November 4th, 2017

9:00am

Members: Free

Nonmembers: Free

Join BRC staff as we work on the Simpser Red Streams Blue project in East Marlborough Township.

Annual Holiday Craft Night

December 15th, 2017

5:00 – 9:00pm

Ages 6-13 years

Members: $20

Nonmembers: $30

Siblings half price!

Max: 20 participants

Our annual Holiday Craft Night will give participants the opportunity to create a natural ornament or craft. Please dress children for the weather and bring a head lamp or flashlight for a night hike!

